 - (b) against whom an enquiry into grave charges is contemplated or is pending; or
 - (c) against whom a complaint of criminal offence is under investigation or trial and if such suspension is necessary in the public interest.
- (2) A staff of an aided private school shall be deemed to have been suspended with effect from the date of his detention, if he is detained in custody whether on a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding forty eight hours.

- (3) Whenever a staff is placed under suspension, the school committee shall, immediately on the date of issue of the order placing him under suspension, communicate a copy of the order to the authority who is competent to approve the disciplinary action taken by the school committee.
- (4) The staff who has been placed under suspension shall be paid every month from the date of suspension, subsistence allowance at an amount equal to one half of the pay which he was drawing immediately preceding the date on which he was placed under suspension and the admissible dearness allowance and other allowances:

Provided that where the period of suspension continues beyond six months, the school committee shall be solely responsible for the payment of subsistence allowance.
- (5) Where the person suspended has been exonerated after the conclusion of the disciplinary proceedings or where any criminal prosecution instituted against such person has ended in honourable acquittal, the school committee shall,-
 - (a) revoke the suspension and reinstate the person immediately and communicate a copy of the order of reinstatement to the authority competent to approve the disciplinary action;
 - (b) pay such staff, the full pay and allowances which he was drawing immediately preceding the date of suspension less the amount of subsistence allowance already paid to him for the period of suspension.

31. Resignation by the staff of an aided private school.- (1) The staff of an aided private school may, on his own volition resign his appointment by giving three months notice in writing to the school committee or by paying the school committee three months pay and allowances in lieu of such notice thereof with a copy marked to the District Educational Officer (Elementary) or the Chief Educational Officer or the Principal, District Institute of Education and Training, as the case maybe. In case of a probationer, the period of notice or the pay and allowances in lieu thereof shall be two months. He shall also give a sworn declaration to the effect that in the event of acceptance of resignation, he shall not claim any service benefit from that school and shall not seek re-employment in that school at a later date on any ground. The period of three or two months notice, as the case may be, shall be reckoned from the date of receipt of such notice by the school committee.

- (2) The staff who tenders resignation may withdraw the same within the intended period of resignation or before the resignation is accepted, whichever is earlier.
- (3) Notice of resignation submitted by the staff shall not be accepted by the school committee,-
 - (i) if disciplinary proceeding is contemplated or pending against the staff; or
 - (ii) if investigation by the Directorate of Vigilance and Anti Corruption (DVAC) is pending against the staff; or
 - (iii) if any due from the staff is pending to be recovered.
- (4) The school committee shall pass an order either accepting the resignation or rejecting the same for reasons to be recorded in writing.
- (5) If the school committee agrees to accept the request of the staff, shall forward the resignation letter within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of the resignation letter to the competent authority for concurrence. The competent authority shall accord concurrence or otherwise within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the letter. The school committee on receipt of the concurrence of the competent authority shall pass an order within a period of fifteen days and communicate the same to the staff and to the authorities concerned. In the event of acceptance of resignation by the school committee, such staff shall be relieved of his duties with effect from the date on which he has opted to resign the post. The resignation once accepted shall be final and irrevocable.

32. Staff fixation and deployment of surplus staff on retrenchment in an aided private school.- The following norms shall be followed in the fixation of the strength of the staff based on the strength of the pupils studying in the standards / sections for which grant has been paid by the Government prior to the Academic Year 1991-1992 and the consequential deployment of the surplus staff,-

A. Staff fixation.- (1) The strength of the staff of every aided private school shall be fixed based on the strength of the pupils as on the 1st day of August of every academic year.

- (2) The requirement of each aided private school shall be assessed separately by treating each school as a 'unit' for the purpose of fixing the strength of the staff.
- (3) The posts sanctioned to an aided private school prior to the academic year 1991 – 1992 and the strength of the staff fixed based on the strength of the pupils as on the 1st day of August of the academic year in which the fixation is done, whichever is less shall be the norms for fixing the strength of the staff of that academic year.

B. Deployment of surplus staff.-(1) The District Educational Officer concerned in respect of Primary and Middle schools, the Chief Educational Officer concerned in respect of High and Higher Secondary schools and the Joint Director concerned in respect of Anglo-Indian schools shall fix the strength of the staff based on the strength of the pupils updated in the Educational Management Information System (EMIS) as on the 1st day of August of every academic year and shall complete the assessment process on or before the 12th day of August of that academic year.

- (2) The staff fixation statement along with the list of surplus staff identified shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the school committee or the management of the school concerned on or before the 15th day of August of that academic year.

Explanation.- For the purpose of this sub-rule,-

- (i) the surplus staff so identified shall be the junior most staff in that school;
 - (ii) the junior most staff so deployed will retain his seniority in the school from which he has been deployed;
 - (iii) the school to which the junior most staff has been deployed shall pay the salary to such deployed staff and shall have the right to take disciplinary action against such staff.
- (3) The Secretary of the school committee or the management of the school, as the case may be, shall explore the possibility of accommodating the surplus staff against any eligible vacant post in any other aided school under the same educational agency and within the Revenue District and send the report to the concerned District Educational Officer in respect of Primary and Middle schools, the Joint Director concerned in respect of Anglo-Indian schools and the Chief Educational Officer concerned in respect of High and Higher Secondary Schools by the 22nd day of August of that academic year. The concerned District Educational Officer or the Joint Director or the Chief Educational Officer, as the case may be, shall thereafter issue deployment orders to the Secretary of the school committee or the management of the concerned school from and to which the surplus staff shall be deployed, for accommodating those surplus staff within the Revenue District on or before the 31st day of August of that academic year.
- (4) If surplus posts with or without staff are still available after the deployment is made by the concerned Officer, the list of those surplus staff shall be forwarded to the Director concerned on or before the 10th day of September of that academic year.
- (5) On receipt of the list of surplus posts with and without staff,-
- (a) the Director concerned shall resume the surplus posts without staff to the common pool and communicate the same to the Secretary of the school committee or the management of the school, the concerned District Educational Officer, the Chief Educational Officer and the Joint Director, as the case may be;
 - (b) in respect of surplus posts with staff, the Director concerned shall accommodate the identified surplus staff against the eligible vacancy in another aided school coming under the same educational agency in the adjacent Revenue District;
 - (c) if no such vacancy is available in the adjacent Revenue District, such staff shall be given an opportunity of exercising his option for deployment either,-
 - (i) to the eligible vacancy in other aided school under the same educational agency but in far away district; or
 - (ii) to the eligible vacancy in other aided school under different educational agency but in the nearby district;
 - (d) if there is any conflict in the selection of the school specified in clause (c) above, the senior surplus staff shall be given preference.
- (6) The above process shall be done by conducting counselling by the concerned Director or the Chief Educational Officer, the District Educational Officer, and the Joint Director, as the case may be, on or before the 30th day of September of that academic year.
- (7) Even after all these processes, if surplus staff are still available to be deployed or where such deployment is felt difficult, such surplus staff available with the Director concerned shall be sent on deputation to some other nearby Panchayat Union school by the District Educational Officer concerned or to the Government High / Higher Secondary School by the Chief Educational Officer concerned or to the Anglo-Indian School by the Joint Director concerned, till a vacancy arises in any other aided school for the purpose of deployment.
- (8) The educational agency of an aided private school shall not make any new appointment in the eligible vacancy available in the school till the deployment of all other surplus staff available in other aided private schools coming under the same corporate management is exhausted based on the report given by the concerned District Educational Officer, the Chief Educational Officer and the Joint Director, as the case may be to this effect.

- (9) The staff who is found to be surplus in an aided private school should join the school to which he has been deployed within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of the deployment order failing which, disciplinary action will be initiated against the staff concerned by the school from which the surplus staff has been deployed and no further grant-in-aid will be sanctioned to that particular post held by such surplus staff.
- (10) The staff who has been issued with deployment order has no vested right to choose a particular place since he should be prepared to work anywhere in any aided private school as ordered.
- (11) Where the Secretary of the school committee or the management of the school, as the case may be, refuses to relieve the deployed staff, the grant – in - aid extended to that particular post which has been declared surplus shall be stopped immediately forthwith.
- (12) Where the Secretary of the school committee or the management of the school, as the case may be, to which such surplus staff has been deployed refuses to accommodate the deployed staff, the Secretary of the school committee or the management of the school, as the case may be, shall not fill up the vacant post without the approval of the competent authority. In such case, if the deployment has been made by the District Educational Officer concerned in respect of Primary and Middle schools, the fact shall be intimated to the Director of Elementary Education who shall take action to send such deployed staff on deputation to some other nearby Panchayat Union school till a vacancy arises in any other aided school for the purpose of deployment as prescribed in sub-rule(7) above. If the deployment has been made by District Educational Officer concerned in respect of High and Higher Secondary schools, the fact shall be intimated to the Chief Educational Officer concerned and the Chief Educational Officer shall intimate the same to the Director of School Education who shall take action to send such deployed staff on deputation to some other nearby Government school till a vacancy arises in any other aided school for the purpose of deployment as prescribed in sub-rule(7) above. If the deployment has been made by the Joint Director concerned, in respect of Anglo-Indian schools the fact shall be intimated to the concerned Director who shall take action to send such deployed staff on deputation to some other nearby Government school till a vacancy arises in any other Anglo-Indian school for the purpose of deployment as prescribed in sub-rule (7) above.
- (13) If any vacancy arises in the aided school from which the surplus staff has been deployed consequent on increase in the strength of the pupils in that school in the next academic year, the surplus staff who has been deployed from that school earlier shall be re-transferred to that school on obtaining his willingness.

33. Payment of grant.-

- (1) Private schools which have been receiving aid prior to the academic year 1991 – 1992 may continue to be paid grant from out of the State funds, subject to the availability of funds, the norms and conditions specified in the Grant-in-Aid Code and other orders and notifications issued by the Government.

AGREEMENT TO BE EXECUTED BETWEEN THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE AND THE PERMANENT STAFF

Agreement made this _____ day of _____ (month) Two Thousand _____ between the School Committee _____ (school) on the ONE PART and _____ (employee) on the OTHER PART.

WHEREAS the school committee has agreed to appoint the said Thiru/Thirumathi/Selvi _____ to serve in the _____ (school), in the post of _____ (designation) with the pay and allowances herein after mentioned.

AND WHEREAS, the said Thiru / Thirumathi / Selvi _____ has agreed to take up appointment as _____ (designation) in the _____ (school).

Now these presents witness and the parties hereto do hereby agree as follows:-

1. That the school committee shall employ the said Thiru/Thirumathi/Selvi _____ as _____ (designation) and the said employee shall serve in the _____ (school) from the date of his taking charge of such appointment until such employment is determined as hereinafter provided.
2. That the said employee shall be on probation for a period of two years within a continuous period of three years from the date on which he joins duty. The school committee may however extend the period of probation for a further period, in any case not exceeding two years, for reasons to be recorded in writing.
3. If no orders extending the period of probation are passed within six months after the completion of the period of probation, the said employee shall be deemed to have completed his probation.
4. That the said employee shall conduct himself honestly, efficiently and diligently under the orders and instructions of the Head Master or the school committee.
5. That the said employee shall not normally or on any pretence absent himself from duty without the prior permission of the Head Master. In case of sickness or other inevitable genuine causes, he shall forward the medical certificate obtained from the registered medical practitioner or send a communication to the Head Master explaining the reason for his absence.
6. That the said employee shall devote his whole time to the duties cast upon the post and shall not on his own account or otherwise either directly or indirectly carry on or be concerned with any trade, business or canvassing work, private tuition or the like of a remunerative kind.
7. That the said employee and the school committee shall conform to all the provisions of the Tamil Nadu Private Schools (Regulation) Act, 2018 (Tamil Nadu Act 35 of 2019) and the rules made thereunder.
8. That the school committee shall not impose any major penalty on the employee consequent on any disciplinary proceedings initiated against him under rule 28 without following the procedure contemplated therein.
9. The school committee shall at any time if it is satisfied on medical evidence that the said employee is unfit to discharge his duties for reasons of ill health, terminate his services on paying him three months pay and allowances less any amount which might have been paid to him as leave pay, after his discharge from duty.
10. That the said employee shall be entitled to resign by giving three months' notice thereof in writing to the school committee or by paying the school committee three months' pay and allowances in lieu thereof. In case of a probationer, the period of notice or the pay and allowances in lieu thereof shall be two months.
11. That the school committee may impose any of the penalties prescribed in sub-rule (1) of rule 28 for any irregularity or breach of the Code of Conduct after affording him an opportunity of making a representation.
12. Entries shall be made in the service register of the said employee in respect of penalties imposed. Such entries shall be made only after the appeal, if any, preferred by the said employee is disposed of by the appellate authority specified in these rules.
13. That the said employee appointed against a sanctioned post shall be paid a sum of Rs. _____ per month as grant and the other admissible allowances as sanctioned by the Government from time to time, with effect from _____.
14. Such employee shall also be entitled to annual increments as sanctioned by the Government from time to time.
